1972 NIGHTINGALE

Rex Hospital School of Nursing
Raleigh, North Carolina

STUDENT LIFE...

This Is The Way It Is...

"Well Kitty, I told you to go to the clinic."

"It's only my fourth break today."

"I'll not pull two shifts."

"Draper, what do you think?"

"My home away from home."

"A toddy for the body after that long day at work."

"This is sure some way to spend a Friday night!"

"If I'm gonna have to do this for three years . . ."

"This is only the fifth book I've read tonight."

"My mama still loves me!"

"Kitty, what did you eat for supper?"

"Well, Dr. Welby is a repeat tonight."

"How do you spell the word? Hysterectomy or Histerectomy."

"The only male allowed in the dorm at night."

"Joyce, that ring is throwing it off balance."

"Well, I'll be. I thought she would never get married!"

"Let's see. You want roast beef and five potatoes for lunch."

"You mean lab from 1:00 to 5:00 on Saturdays?"

"Open wide for Chunkies!"

"Which is more interesting — the pool or the boys?"

"Is this a footwash or a carwash?"

"We don't have to wash that truck over there do we?"

"Should I wear bedroom slippers or boots with this outfit?"

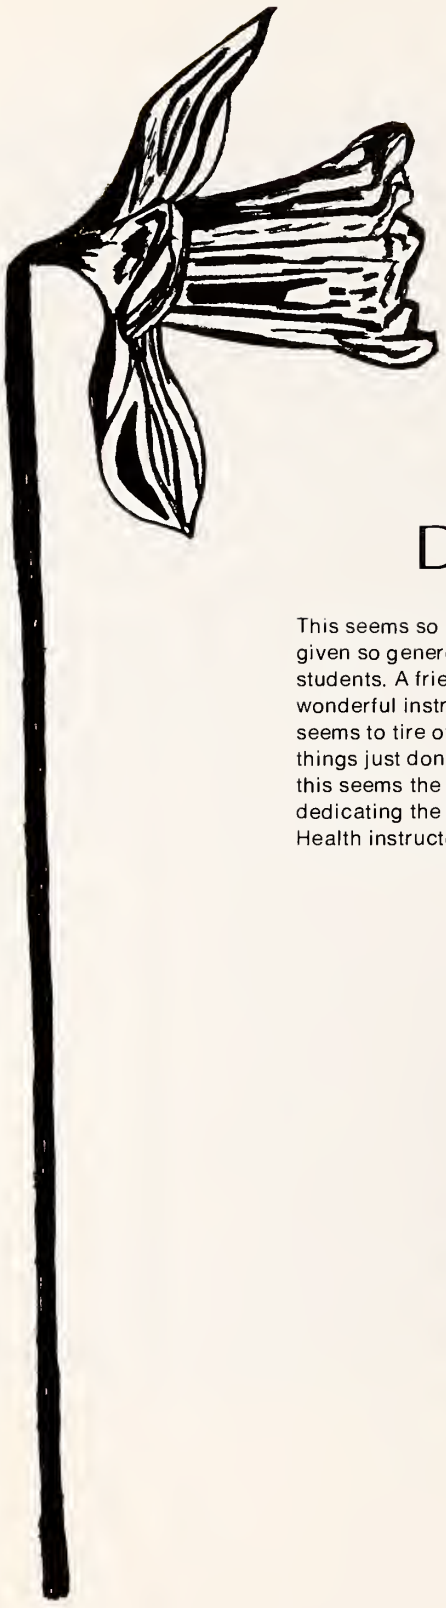
"This is the only way we can get some people to wash their dirty dishes!"

"Better than last night's supper of pickle sandwiches!"

"Girls, breath from your diaphragm!"

"Giving motherly advice? No, its only Ellen."

"Oh, I'm getting sick already!"



Dedication

This seems so small an honor for someone who has given so generously of her time and energy to help the students. A friend with all the students as well as a wonderful instructor, this remarkable little lady never seems to tire of suggestions or a comforting word when things just don't seem right. Regardless of how small this seems the 1972 Senior class feels great pleasure in dedicating the 1972 Nightingale to our Community Health instructor —

The 1972 Graduates of Rex Hospital School of Nursing

I Solemnly Pledge . . .

The Florence Nightingale Pledge

I solemnly pledge myself, before God, in the presence of this assembly, to pass my life in purity, and to practice my profession faithfully. I will abstain from whatever is deleterious and mischievous, and will not take or knowingly administer any harmful drug. I will do all in my power to maintain and elevate the standard of my profession, and will hold in confidence all personal matters committed to my keeping, and all family affairs coming to my knowledge in the practice of my calling. With loyalty I will endeavor to aid the physician in his work, and devote myself to the welfare of those committed to my care.

EDITOR'S NOTE

I would first like to extend my sincere appreciation to the entire body of Rex School of Nursing for their efforts in making this annual possible.

To Melody Secrest, thank you for keeping our bills paid and straight.

To Elaine Slaughter, thanks for the wonderful art contributions.

To Paulette Evans, my sincere appreciation for your good work and care.

To Debbie Gibson, words can't say how much I appreciated you.

And to everyone who made the 1972 Nightingale possible, I say thank you. I feel Ed Goldston deserves praise for a job well done.

I certainly hope you will enjoy this annual as much as we have.

Sincerely,

Debbie Ross
